THINGS TO DO IN MALAGA

Some interesting activities to do in Malaga are:

- Walk around Muelle Uno (Port of Malaga):
Muelle Uno, with the best views of Malaga, is an earthly paradise in the Port of Malaga. This innovative commercial space open to the sea offers a unique experience with shops, leisure and restaurants.
- Marqués de Larios Street:
The pedestrian street Marqués de Larios, in the centre of Malaga, is ideal for shopping. Named in honour of the Marquis of Larios, promoter of the textile industry in the 19th century, it has a rich history. Currently closed to traffic, the street attracts many pedestrians with its boutiques, shoe stores, restaurants, cafes, and almond stalls. The ice cream parlour La Casa Mira, opened since 1890, stands out. Works by renowned sculptors are also on display. In addition, during the year, the street hosts cultural events, with decorations of lights and jasmine, and flamenco music and dance shows.
- Visit the Alcazaba, Teatro Romano and Castillo de Gibralfaro:
The Moorish Alcazaba of Malaga is connected to the Castle of Gibralfaro by La Coracha, a defensive wall. In Arabic, "alcazaba" means 'walled fortified enclosure', housing barracks, prisons and administrative buildings.
The Teatro Romano of Malaga has a history linked to the Alcazaba, as it was used as a quarry for its construction. During the ascent from Alcazabilla street, you can see details of the theatre, as Arab builders reused rocks, capitals and marble between 1057 and 1063 AD.
The Castillo de Gibralfaro is a Nasrid fortress of the 14th century. It was built to defend the Alcazaba, located at its feet, and its name comes from Mount Jabal-Faruk, which means 'mountain of the lighthouse'.

- Catamaran Tour:

Catamarán Mundo Marino and Fly Blue are 2 providers of catamaran tours. Enjoy a unique experience on these sailing boats that will allow you to enjoy the bay, the dolphins and a spectacular sunset. The cost of the tour is around 12 to 25 euros.

- Pedregalejo and the popular “Espetos”:

With the rising temperatures, the desire of many to dip their toes in the water and taste the famous sardine skewer, one of the typical dishes of the beach bars found along the Costa del Sol, increases even more. Over the years, some of these beach restaurants have become undisputed points of reference for this type of grilled cuisine: Las Acacias, Miguelito El Cariñoso, El Caleño, among others.

- Museums:

Another more cultural option would be to visit the most important museums in the city. These are the Museo Carmen Thyssen, the Museo Picasso and the Pompidou.
